

An Advent Prayer

May you find His peace in all your preparations.

May you know His presence as you let go of pretense.

May you experience His comfort on the crazy hard days.

And may the Word-Made-Flesh reveal Himself in the middle of your weariness and worry.

May this Advent find you open to His invitation of recovering all that seems lost and forgotten.